CHANGE OF COMPANY NAME

Dear Relation,

We are pleased to announce that Saab Aerotech BV has become part of the JetSupport Group. This move comes after several years of cooperation between Saab Aerotech BV and JetSupport Amsterdam and is a consequence of the close working relation that has been developed.

For more than 25 years, we have supported the aircraft industry and we will continue on the high level like you may expect from us.

Together with our colleagues of JetSupport Amsterdam we will give you the comprehensive support by uniting all of our maintenance facilities into one independent group :

The change of name will be effective from October 01,2009.

Please update any formal register and/or contract to reflect the change.

All points of contact will remain the same.

From October 1st we start using our new website www.JetSupport-Avionics.nl where you can find more details about JetSupport Avionics B.V. and the support we can offer.

Till that time you can always contact us at info@saabaerotech.nl

We are exited to continue our good relationship into the future.

Yours truly,

Ben Vente
